ORDER OF DECERTIFICATION

On July 8, 1992, Danny R. Jackson ("Petitioner"), an employee of the Village of Lyndonville ("Village"), filed a Petition for the Decertification of Collective Bargaining Representative with the Vermont Labor Relations Board, alleging that the presently certified bargaining representative of Village employees, IBEW Local 300 ("Union"), was no longer supported by a majority of the bargaining unit members. The petition was accompanied by supporting signature cards, signed by not less than 30 percent of the employees in the bargaining unit, indicating that the employees no longer desired to be represented by the Union.

In response to the petition, the Union and the Village agreed that there was no collective bargaining agreement in effect that would act as a bar to a decertification election. Linda P. McIntire, Labor Relations Specialist for the Vermont Labor Relations Board, conducted an election on September 2, 1992, in the bottom floor conference room of the Village Offices in Lyndonville, Vermont. Ernest Robbins, IBEW Business Manager, observed for the Union. No one observed for the Village. Petitioner Danny R. Jackson did not observe the election but observed the counting of the ballots. All three eligible employees voted.

The results of the election were:

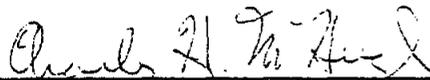

IBEW Local 300 1

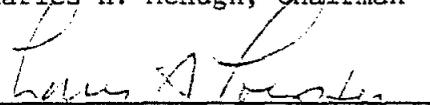

No Union 2

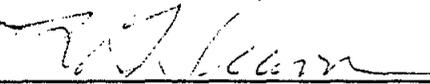

As a result of this election, it is hereby ORDERED that IBEW Local 300 is DECERTIFIED as the exclusive bargaining representative of the water, street and sewer employees; excluding the superintendent and assistant superintendent; employed by the Village of Lyndonville.

Dated this 14th day of September, 1992, at Montpelier, Vermont.
